ON THE SIDE OF THE ROAD

Tuesday, October 20, 2015 ♦ 7 PM

On the Side of the Road is a 2013 Israeli documentary written and directed by Lia Tarachansky.

The film focuses on Israeli collective denial of the events of 1948 that led to the country's independence and the Palestinian refugee problem.

It also tells the story of the director, Lia Tarachansky, an Israeli who grew up in a settlement in the West Bank, but as an adult began to realize the problems of the Israeli Occupation for the Palestinians.

The film was shot over the course of five years and was premiered at the First International Independent Film Festival in Tel Aviv.
